Career Options

- Exploring options
- Working as a doctor
- Academic Medicine
  - Academic clinical fellowships
  - Clinical lectureship
  - Clinical senior lectureship
  - GP Trainees
  - Summary of Resources
  - Academic Medicine - Case Study
- Alternatives to clinical practice
- Alternatives to working in the NHS
- Other possible alternatives
- Medical Training Abroad
- Less than full time training
- Doctors with disabilities
- Returning to work after a break
- Completing a Masters
- Locum work

My Links

Manage my Links

Summary of Resources

There are a number of organisations which provide information related to academic medicine:

- The NCCRCD (National Coordinating Centre for Research Capacity Development) has been replaced by the NIHR Trainees Coordinating Centre. The NIHR website provides information on recruitment to academic training posts
- UK Clinical Research Collaboration
- The Academy of Medical Sciences has careers information
- The Academy of Medical Educators is the professional organisation for all those involved in the education and training of medical students and doctors
- BMA has information for Medical Academics

If you are interested in medical education then go to the Association for the Study of Medical Education (ASME) website as it has information about forthcoming events, publications etc.

The following websites can be searched for academic opportunities:

- BMJ Careers
- Clinical academic jobs for both medical and dental jobs
- NHS jobs advertises a wide range of jobs including fellowships
- Jobs.ac.uk – this website advertises a wide range of academic jobs including some medical ones
- The Wellcome Trust offer research fellowships

Copyright Health Education KSS 2013